Special Guest and Keynote Speaker Javier Palomarez,
President and CEO of United States Hispanic Chamber of Commerce

The United States Hispanic Chamber of Commerce (USHCC) is the leading advocate for nearly 3 million Hispanic-owned businesses and over 200 local Hispanic chambers throughout the United States. Palomarez is one of the nation's pre-eminent multi-cultural sales and marketing executives. He is a sought-after spokesperson, thought-leader and strategist on the issues affecting America's consumers, particularly those in the Hispanic community. His opinions and points of view have appeared in leading publications including The Wall Street Journal, Business Week, USA Today and many others.

Most recently, Palomarez served as Vice President of Multicultural Marketing at ING Financial Services, where he was recruited to lead diversity outreach programs. He was responsible for marketing, sponsorships, public relations and external communications to help position this global leader in the financial services industry.

As the youngest of ten children, Palomarez spent his formative years as a migrant farm worker. He is the product of public schooling and learned English as a second language. As a former high school drop-out, he obtained a GED and worked his way through college. While in college, Palomarez earned national recognition as the recipient of the Wall Street Journal's Student Achievement Award. He graduated with a Bachelor of Arts degree in Finance from the University of Texas – Pan American.
