Hi {FIRST_NAME|GQCHCC Supporter},

On behalf of the GQCHCC Board, Advisors, and Staff, thank you for your support and generosity throughout the year!

Special thanks to our Board of Directors, Advisors, members, sponsors, donors, and volunteers who have joined and supported us through their contributions, referrals, and participation at our events and workshops. Through their help, membership and participation has grown tremendously, including Hispanic and non-Hispanic individuals and small-to-large organizations from the business, education, government, health, non-profit, religious, and arts sectors, to name a few.

We listened and responded to the needs and requests of our members and community by developing diverse programs and events to help strengthen and grow their businesses and organizations. We provided technical assistance, training, educational, informational, and networking opportunities. We created a leadership speakers series and we continued to advise companies and organizations on developing authentic, long-term relationships among Hispanics and others in the community. As the largest and fastest growing minority population, we stressed the importance of valuing our purchasing power, our leadership contributions to the community, our tremendous small business growth (especially among Latinas), and our small, medium and large company impact.

In partnership with you, we will continue to contribute to the economic and community growth in the Quad Cities and beyond. As we head into 2011, we need your continued input and support, so that we can provide more programs and resources to the Hispanic community and others. Please join us or continue as members, sponsors, donors, volunteers, and partners. You can visit our website regularly, www.gqchcc.com, to learn how to participate and to constantly be updated on activities, opportunities, and resources. To start the New Year with us, please join us for our Annual Meeting and banquet on the evening of January 15th, 2011, at the Isle Casino Hotel Bettendorf. Our guest speaker will be Javier Palomarez, President and CEO of the United States Hispanic Chamber of Commerce. More detailed information is provided below.

We wish you a happy and productive New Year! Thank you, again!
