News You Can Use

6 Things You Need to Know about Deferred Action and Dream Act Students -Center for American Progress

- President Barack Obama announced that his administration will suspend deportation ("deferred action") and grant work authorization to DREAM Act-eligible youth, effective immediately.
- These youth, who were brought to the United States at a young age, have been living in limbo as Congress plays political football with their lives by failing to pass the DREAM Act and give them a pathway to legal status.
- Though the president's action cannot grant permanent legal status, it is a significant step forward that will give piece of mind and the ability to work to a significant group of people.
