

“Hot Monogamy: Secrets to Lifelong Passion”

February 16, 2012 Noon to 1:15pm

Featuring Nationally-recognized Sex and Family Therapist Dr. Pat Love

In partnership with The Robert Young Center

What better Valentine's gift to give your sweetheart than a delightful lunch including insight on maintaining lifelong passion in your relationship?

Plan to join the Women's Connection on February 16 to hear nationally-recognized sex and family therapist Dr. Pat Love present on "Hot Monogamy." Considered one of the pre-eminent relationship experts and sex therapists in the nation, Dr. Love will highlight nine research-based lessons for lifelong passion, including advice on applying these lessons to strengthen your relationship.

Known for her warmth and humor, Dr. Pat Love is author of Hot Monogamy, The Truth About Love and How to Improve Your Marriage Without Talking About It. She has appeared numerous times on Oprah, The Today Show and CNN and is a regular contributor to Cosmopolitan, Men's Health and Good Housekeeping. She is a licensed Marriage and Family Therapist and past president of the International Association of Marriage and Family Counseling.

Give you and your sweetie a Valentine's treat - bring them along to hear Dr. Love's humorous and informative keynote on heating up your love life!

Event location: QC Waterfront Convention Center, Bettendorf

Cost: $25 for members, $30 for non-members
