

WHY JOIN THE HISPANIC CHAMBER?

The Hispanic Chamber creates long-lasting, community-led change by supporting businesses of any background our aim is to build a stronger community and work together with community leaders and organizations to achieve a positive economic impact in the greater Quad Cities area.

MEMBER BENEFITS

BUSINESS NETWORKING

We are invested in platforms to promote our business community which include in-person events, a newsletter, website featuring a community calendar, member directory, and a job posting page to enhance recruitment efforts.

BUSINESS DEVELOPMENT

The Hispanic Chamber works year round to support a strong local economy through its core values by fostering economic development and creating sustainable prosperity for the benefit of the greater Quad Cities area.

PARTNERSHIPS

We create strong and developed partnerships with business service providers to offer technical services and connect our members to our unique cultural identity to generate new business opportunities.

CREDIBILITY

For over eleven years the Hispanic Chamber has become the respected source for your connection to the Latino community in the greater Quad Cities area. Becoming the only two time recipient of the Chamber of the Year award by the USHCC.

MULTICULTURAL COMMUNITY

We help create a space for members and business owners of any background to participate in community and economic development through ribbon cuttings, business awards, and networking events. All of our programs were developed with the multicultural community in mind to create awareness of diversity, equity and inclusion.

ADVOCACY

We are an organization of businesses and individuals seeking to further the collective interest of our community. In particular, we created the award-winning Empowering Latina Leadership Alliance (ELLA) group that facilitates new opportunities to benefit Latinas who are interested in pursuing networking opportunities and small business development.
